

Handicapping and Points

There will be two (2) sets of points kept for every driver.

Set one (1) will be driver points awarded through qualifying heats and feature finishes.

Set two (2) will be handicapping points that will be used for lineups for qualifying heats and features.

Drivers must be present at the track to register. Only driver or car owner may register the car. Drivers must register in the office with the handicapper Keri and with the scorer Haley.

Transponders are $10.00 and you are required to leave a Valid driver's license at the office when you receive your transponder. Your driver's license will be returned when you return the transponder at the end of the day's event.

All drivers must be registered 40 minutes prior to the days scheduled start of the race. Any driver not registered will start at the rear of the field for qualifying heats. If they qualify in the heat, they will return to their scheduled handicapped starting position for the feature event.

Any concerns with a driver who is not experienced enough or driving a vehicle not capable of starting in their handicapped starting spot will be addressed on a case by case basis by track officials.

Handicapping:

- 1st Race: Race one everyone will draw for starting positions for the qualifying heats.
- Race 2: Handicapping will start for race 2 of the season. Cars will line up from lowest in points to highest in points.
- Starting race 3: All lineups will be based upon handicapping from this point going forward to the end of the season.
- Handicapping is done by the total of three (3) previous racing finishes from qualifying heats and feature finishes.
- Handicapped cars will line up for qualifying heats based upon three (3) previous race handicapping points, starting from lowest in points to highest in points.
- Lowest in points of qualified cars will start 1st in heat number one, second lowest in points will start 1st in heat number two, third lowest in points will start 1st in heat number three, etc.
- Any new driver to the track will be handicapped based upon a 3 week total of handicapping points. They will be lined up at the rear of the field for qualifying heats.
- New drivers who qualify for the feature event will line up behind all qualified cars plus the previous weeks feature winner.
- Previous week winner will start at the rear of all qualified cars, but in front of any new cars.
- Drivers must attend the drivers meeting and be registered in the office. If you do not register you will start at the rear of the field.
- Any qualified driver who needs to swap cars in case of mechanical issues, crash damage, etc. will be moved to the rear of the starting field for the feature event.

- Any driver who is disqualified will receive maximum 55 handicapping points for the week.
- Any driver missing a racing event will receive the maximum 55 handicapping points for the week.
- Drivers must take at least one green flag lap in either the qualifying heat or feature. Driver will receive 0 points for the day for handicapping if they experience damage, break, crash, etc. If no green flag laps are completed, driver will receive maximum 55 handicapping points for the week.

Number of heats based on car counts:

- 10 or fewer cars = 1 heat race, no consolation. Top five qualify for the feature and will line based off handicap points from lowest to highest. Previous race winner would start 5th for the feature event.
- 11-20 cars = 2 heat races, 1 consolation (based on need). Top five qualify from each heat for the feature and will line up based upon handicapping, lowest in points to highest in points. Previous Race winner would start 10th.
- 21-30 cars = 3 heat races, 1 consolation (based on need). Top five from each heat race would qualify for the feature and will line up based upon handicapping, lowest in points to highest in points. Previous week winner would start 15th.
- Number of qualifying cars per heat will be determined on race day and will be posted with lineups.
